

Session 4C

Enabling sensitive data collaborations with data cleanrooms – The data protection officer's perspective

Maximilian Groth |
CEO and Co-Founder
Decentriq

Bio: Maximilian Groth is the CEO and co-founder of Decentriq, a Swiss enterprise SaaS platform, providing secure data clean rooms to collaborate with external partners on sensitive datasets. Before founding Decentriq, Max worked at Teralytics, a company focusing on the monetization of telecommunication data. Max received his Master's in Accounting & Finance from the University of Saint Gallen.

Brief description: TBA

Abstract: TBA

Key words: TNA

Matthias Eigenmann |
Data Protection Officer
City Hospital of Zurich

Bio: Matthias Eigenmann has 10+ years of experience as an Attorney-at-Law and legal advisor with a focus on technology and privacy law. During his time at a leading

Inaugural CDOIQ European Symposium

8th September 2022

University of Lausanne, Switzerland

<https://cdoiq-europe.org/>

Lausanne law firm he advised Fortune 500 clients on technology and privacy law. Matthias continued as in-house council for technology and privacy law at PWC. Currently he serves as the Data Protection Officer for City Hospitals of Zurich - advising on matters pertaining to sensitive patient data. He recently authored the article "Enhanced Privacy for Data Analytics".

Brief description:

Abstract:

Key words: